

COMMITMENT TO IMPARTIALITY STATEMENT

At Inspectahire Instrument Company Ltd. we fully understand the importance of impartiality in carrying out inspection activities. We are committed to ensuring that all inspection work is conducted independently, objectively, and without bias.

We recognise that impartiality is critical to maintaining confidence in our inspection services. Therefore, we have established policies and procedures to manage conflicts of interest and safeguard impartiality at all levels of our organisation.

Top Management confirms that:

- We are committed to upholding the principles of impartiality in all inspection activities.
- We understand and accept the responsibility to identify, monitor, and manage risks to impartiality, including those arising from our own activities, relationships, or external pressures.
- We will ensure that commercial, financial, or other pressures do not compromise the impartiality or integrity of our inspections.
- We shall maintain our independence from any activities that could unduly influence our judgment or the outcome of inspections.
- We will regularly review impartiality risks as part of our management system to ensure continual improvement and compliance with ISO 17020:2012.

This statement is communicated to all staff and relevant parties and is reviewed annually by Top Management.
